OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 15 August 1962

- I. (Internal Use Only JSW) Talked with Seb Smart, House Armed Services Committee staff, about our legislation and questions of clearance with Post Office and Civil Service and House Foreign Affairs Committees. It was his view that before introduction this should be cleared away with the two Committees. Further, he offered his view that after discussion with William Dardon of Smate Armed Services staff there appeared to be little likelihood that the bill could clear the Congress. However, he saw the value is actual introduction. It was further determined, however, that neither Smart nor Dardon had discussed the bill or tactice with either Vincen or Russell.
- 2. (Internal Use Caly JSW) While attempting to make arrangements for a convenient time to meet with the Speaker.
 Mr. McGermack came on the telephone asking if I was sure Mr.
 McGene wanted to see him. I pointed out that Mr. McGene for some time had wanted to sit down with the Speaker and discuss the Agency generally and now we did have a small piece of legislation also. Mr.
 McGermack wanted to be sure he was not imposing on the basy schedule of Mr. McGene. The meeting was set for 10:30 tomorrow merning.
- 3. (Internal Use Only J5 W) Discussed with Boyd Crawford, Staff Director, House Fareign Affairs Committee, our proposed legislation, giving him a brief run-down asking if he forests any jurisdictional problems and asking his advice about talking to the Chairman, Dr. Morgan. Grawford indicated he saw no real problem and suggested that he take it up with the Chairman. Subsequently, Crawford advised he had talked to Dr. Morgan who indicated firmly there certainly was no jurisdictional problem and the Chairman added not only would be strongly support our bill but he would certainly vote for it.
- 4. (Internal Use Only Jaw) Talked with George Moore on the stall of House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning our early retirement legislation. In view of the fact that it was an amendment to the GIA Act under jurisdiction of Armed Services, Moore was certain Mr. Murray would have no objection on jurisdictional
